LEXINGTON Tournament History

"-Q" Qualifying match

ROGERS:

- The last remaining of three wildcards at the inaugural Top Seed Open (also McNally and Zvonareva – both fell 1r)
- Contesting fourth event of 2020 on home soil – also reached 3r at WTA 125K Series events at Newport Beach and Indian Wells, and won the title at $100K ITF/Michigan-MI, USA
- Hit 10 aces to see off Doi in 1r, then recovered from 5-2 down in the second set to beat Fernandez in 2r
- Defeated No.9 S.Williams in QF for third career Top 10 win; others came over No.4 Halep in 1r at 2017 Australian Open and No.8 Bouchard at 2014 Montréal
- Faces No.63 Teichmann today looking for first final since 2016 and since coming back from knee injury
- Appearing in first career SF on hardcourt and fourth SF of career with 2-1 record; also made SF at 2014 Bad Gastein (clay; finished R-Up to Petkovic) and 2016 Rio de Janeiro (clay; finished R-Up to Schiavone) as well as 2014 Quebec City (carpet; I. V.Williams)
- Prior to tour's resumption, posted a 6-3 record across a series of exhibition events in US
- Opened 2020 season with 2r showing at Shenzhen (I. Muguruza) and fell 1r at Australian Open (as qualifier, I. eventual R-Up Muguruza). Only other tour-level main draw was 1r exit at Acapulco (I. Volynets), while elsewhere made 3r at WTA 125K Series events at Newport Beach and Indian Wells, and won sixth career title on ITF Circuit, at $100K ITF/Michigan-MI
- Last year, made return from injury at Charleston where she reached 2r (I. Ostapenko). Also made 2r at Roland Garros and Mallorca and fell 1r six occasions and reached one ITF Circuit final
- Fell 1r in only two tournaments played in 2018 at Australian Open and Indian Wells - injured left knee in loss to Dolehide at Indian Wells, requiring surgery in the summer
- In 2017, posted third Top 100 season and best year-end finish of No.59. Year highlighted by reaching QFs at Charleston, Hobart and Strasbourg. Achieved career-high ranking of No.48 on January 30, 2017
- Also in 2017, played all three ties for USA team which won first Fed Cup in 17 years, winning decisive doubles rubber (w/Vandeweghe) in final against Belarus
- At 2017 US Open matched her previous best result at her home Slam by advancing to 3r (I. Svitolina). In 2r, d. No.25 seed Gavrilova 7-6(6), 4-6, 7-6(5), in a match that took 3 hours, 33 minutes, setting a record for the longest women's match in US Open history
- Defeat of No.20-ranked Gavrilova in New York marked 10th Top 20 win of career – now 10-21 lifetime vs. Top 20 opponents. Registered best career win to date came over No.4 Halep in 1r at 2017 Australian Open
- Posted second Top 100 season in 2016, at No.60 – up from No.146 in 2015; had dropped from No.72 at end of 2014
- Appeared in two WTA singles finals, at 2016 Rio de Janeiro (I. Schiavone) and at 2014 Bad Gastein (d. No.16 Suárez Navarro and No.14 Errani en route, I.Petkovic)
- One-time doubles runner-up, at 2015 Bogotá (w/Falconi)
- Participated in 2014 WTA Finals Rising Stars Invitational in Singapore (along with Diyas, Puig and Zheng)
- Made Top 100 for first time on August 11, 2014
- Won first WTA level match at 2013 Strasbourg (d. Domachowska)
- Winner of five singles titles and two doubles titles on ITF Circuit, where she made professional debut in United States in 2009, at age 16

TEICHMANN:

- Playing inaugural Top Seed Open in Lexington, just the fourth tour-level main draw appearance on US soil of her career (also 2r at US Open in 2019 and 1r exits at the Bronx and US Open in 2019)

- Broke serve 11 times across wins over qualifier Kalinskaya in 1r and No.5 seed Putintseva in 2r
- Victory over No.33 Putintseva marked her first Top 50 win since defeating No.5 Bertens to lift her maiden title at 2019 Palermo
- Defeated No.302 Bellis in QF for a spot in her first WTA SF since 2019 Palermo title run
- Competing in first career SF on hardcourt having previously only made final four on clay
- Career record in WTA SF matches stands at 2-0 having gone on to win the title each time she has reached this stage - 2019 Prague (d. Muchova in F) and 2019 Palermo (d. No.5 Bertens in F)
- In her final tour-level appearance before the hiatus, reached 2r at Lyon (l. Dodin via ret. w/right ankle injury)
- Fell in the opening hurdle of qualifying at Dubai (l. Martincova) before falling 1r at Doha (as qualifier, l. Ostapenko)
- Won both singles rubbers as Switzerland beat Canada 3-1 to earn a place at the inaugural Fed Cup Finals in Budapest
- Fell 1r at Hobart (l. Watson) and then Australian Open (l. Alexandrova)
- Began season with 2r showing at Auckland (l. Goerges)

Rogers made waves at the Grand Slam level in 2016 after a dream run to the quarterfinals of Roland Garros – becoming the ninth player ranked outside the Top 100 (No.108) to advance to the last eight in Paris since 1983.

She had a promising 2017 that saw her become a Fed Cup champion, reach three quarterfinals and achieve a new career-high ranking of No.48, however was sidelined with a knee injury that required surgery in 2018.

Rogers won an emotional victory in her comeback at 2019 Volvo Car Open in her hometown of Charleston and has been since trying to get back to her winning ways. Since her return, has reached 2r at 2019 Roland Garros and has won two titles on the ITF circuit.

In 2018, the Charleston resident was the recipient of the Volvo Car Open’s inaugural ‘Player Who Makes a Difference’ award for her charitable efforts.

Not many collegiate athletes, let alone tennis players, are able to make the transition to the pro tour, and those that do very rarely tend to pan out, but Jennifer Brady has proven to be an exception to those trends.

The 2014 NCAA National Champion from UCLA turned pro in the summer of 2015 and made a name for herself in 2017 after producing a breakout campaign which led to the first Top 100 finish of her career, ending the year at No.64.

The American turned in strong performances at the Grand Slams in 2017, reaching the last 16 at the Australian Open and US Open. She won through three rounds of qualifying at the Australian Open and went on to become the first American female qualifier to reach the fourth round at Melbourne Park in the Open Era.

Brady has been off to a firing start in 2020, opening the season with a quarterfinal run at Brisbane, where she defeated former World No.1 Maria Sharapova and the reigning No.1 Ashleigh Barty. She also notched three consecutive Top 20 wins to reach the semifinals at Dubai in February.

Coco Gauff, a 16-year-old from Delray Beach, FL., took the world by storm during her fairytale run on the grass courts of Wimbledon in 2019. Becoming the youngest player to reach the Wimbledon main draw through qualifying, Gauff quickly proved her worth among the top players as she ousted Venus Williams en route to the fourth round.

Gauff continued to impress in 2019, reaching the third round at the US Open before picking up her maiden WTA singles title at Linz. She also captured her first WTA doubles titles with her good friend Caty McNally at Washington, DC and Luxembourg.

Though she won the hearts of the world at Wimbledon, Coco's impressive game has been on display for much longer. At just 13-years-old she became the youngest player to reach the US Open junior final in 2017. She then went on to lift the 2018 Junior Orange Bowl trophy, the 2018 French Open girls' singles championship and the 2018 US Open girls' doubles championship.

Coco's interest in sport comes as no surprise with both of her parents being colligate athletes, her father playing basketball for Georgia State University and her mother a track and field star at Florida State University. And while Gauff is a force on the tennis court, her interests range from music to memes, with a few of her favorite artists being Jaden Smith, Rihanna and Beyoncé.
