FINAL QUICK-HITS

- Iga Swiatek is contesting her third Grand Slam final, having previously lifted the title at Roland Garros in 2020 and 2022, while this year's Wimbledon runner-up Ons Jabeur is playing the second major final of her career
- Jabeur is the first woman to reach the final at both Wimbledon and the US Open in the same season since Serena Williams in 2019
- Should Jabeur triumph on Saturday, she will become the 58th different major winner in the Open Era and first from Africa
- Jabeur is one of four African woman in major history to reach a Grand Slam final and first in the Open Era. The other three were South Africans Irene Peacock (1927 Roland Garros), Renee Schuurman (1959 Australian Open) and Sandra Reynolds (1960 Wimbledon), with the trio all losing out in the final
- Jabeur is bidding to become the second African player – male or female – in the Open Era to win a major, following 1981 Australian Open champion Johan Kriek (also won the Australian Open 1982 but by that time was competing for the United States). Including doubles, most recent African Slam champion was Zimbabwe's Cara Black, who won the Wimbledon mixed doubles trophy alongside Leander Paes in 2010
- Jabeur is also attempting to become the first Arab Grand Slam champion in the Open Era. The only Arab player to win a singles major was Prague-born Jaroslav Drobny, who represented Egypt when he won Roland Garros in 1951-52 and Wimbledon in 1954
- Swiatek is the first woman from Poland in the Open Era to make it beyond the last 16 at the US Open. Before this year, the best results were fourth-round runs by Swiatek (in 2021) and Agnieszka Radwanska (in 2007-08, 2012-13, 2016)
- Jabeur has dropped one set – against Shelby Rogers in the third round – and 51 games en route to the final. Swiatek came from a set down in the fourth round and semifinals, although has conceded fewer games than her final opponent, losing 45 in her six matches
- Swiatek owns 14 Top-10 wins, winning the past nine, including over No.8 Jessica Pegula and No.6 Aryna Sabalenka in the past two rounds this fortnight. Jabeur has 10 Top-10 wins in her career, although only two at majors, upsetting No.7 Dominika Cibulkova at 2017 Roland Garros and No.9 Swiatek at 2021 Wimbledon
- Swiatek is the first No.1 seed to reach the US Open final since Serena Williams won the 2014 title. In the Open Era, the top seed has reached the final 29 times, lifting the trophy 20 times
- At the US Open in the Open Era, the No.1 seed won the title 16 times from 1968-1997 (30 years), while over the next 25 years, the No.1 seed has triumphed only four times: Serena Williams (2002, 2013, 2014) and Justine Henin (2007)

AUG. 29-SEP. 11, 2022 | GRAND SLAM

- Jabeur is the first No.5 seed to reach the final at Flushing Meadows since Arantxa Sánchez Vicario in 1992. In the Open Era, the only time the No.5 seed won the US Open title was in 1990, when Gabriela Sabatini upset World No.1 Steffi Graf in the final
- Jabeur has already claimed titles this season on clay at Madrid and on the grass of Berlin, while Swiatek has won a Tour-leading six tournaments, including three on hard courts. Should she triumph today, Swiatek will be the first player to win seven titles in a season since Serena Williams in 2014
- Since losing her first Tour-level final at 2019 Lugano, Swiatek has won nine in a row, all in straight sets. In 15 of those 18 sets, she conceded no more than three games
- Jabeur has struck 159 winners this fortnight, while Swiatek has hit 118
- Thirty-four of Jabeur's winners have been aces – including 11 against Veronika Kudermetova in the fourth round. Her tally for the season is now 197 – only five women have passed the 200-ace mark so far in 2022
- This ace count has helped Jabeur win 73% of her service games, marginally higher than her season average entering the tournament (72.3%)
- Swiatek is the only player on Tour this year to win over half her return games and this trend has continued in New York. Across the fortnight she has won 35 of 60 games when receiving serve (58%)
- Jabeur has played 21 three-set matches this year, the third-most on Tour behind only Sabalenka (23) and Bencic (22). Jabeur is also tied for the most three-set match wins this year:

Aryna Sabalenka	23	12-11
Belinda Bencic	22	13-9
